The Art of Family Travel

FAMILY
FRIENDLY FUN

SPOTLIGHT ON SOUTH AFRICA & UAE

KIDS CLUBS: ALL ABOARD
FOR ADVENTURE

Family Travel

Our team has curated a guide to family travel in the Indian Ocean, with spotlights on our properties in South Africa and the UAE. Ensuring all ages and interests are taken into account, we share properties that value and encourage quality time through luxury accommodation, family activities, kids clubs and dining experiences.

Inspired by nature, immersed in water sports and intrigued by the array of activities offered; kids become enamoured with the Indian Ocean.

It is here where imaginations are stretched, curiosity is cultivated. South Africa awakens the wild explorer with kids activities in the bush, and the UAE inspires with aquariums, theme parks and desert safaris.

Each destination and property elevates family experiences, turning moments into memories.

THE BEST KIDS & TEEN CLUBS IN THE MALDIVES & SEYCHELLES

ALL ABOARD FOR ADVENTURE

Inspired by childhood wonder, and the largest kids club in the Maldives, 'The Den' at Soneva Jani is a playground paradise. Zip lining through waterfalls, a dress-up room and musical piano steps welcome kids to this technology-free fun zone. Shaped like a traditional fishing boat, the 'Dhoni Club' at Anantara Dhigu, Maldives is home to two activity-packed dhoni boats, a treehouse and a climbing wall. Palm-weaving, crab hunting and traditional Maldivian dance classes are on offer for all crusaders of curiosity!

The Lha Velaa Kids Club truly embodies a 'created by kids, for kids' philosophy, drawing inspiration from the owner's own daughter for its design. It boasts the largest children's water park in the Maldives and offers a range of activities which include playing Maldivian baseball and Koraa (Maldivian hopscotch), participating in talent shows, enjoying pajama parties, and much more.

North Island, Seychelles' Beach Buddy programme is based on the preferences of each child. Kids can look forward to coconut painting, pizza making, baby turtle adoption, giant turtle feeding, art & craft and much more.

Amilla Maldives: The Sultan's Village kids' club has some of the longest hours in the Maldives, from 9am until 8pm, and entertains with next-level sandcastle-making, kombucha classes and a Friday night disco.

CONSCIOUS CRUSADERS

Reflecting JOALI BEING Maldives' four pillars of mind, skin, microbiome and energy, experiences at B'Kidult offered are age-appropriate activities designed by the resort's team of naturopaths, therapists, movements experts and nutritionists. Jungle yoga, martial art classes and 'nice-cream' making lessons are few of the experiences available.

Adventure awaits around every corner with the 'Ritz Kids' program at Ritz-Carlton Maldives, Fari Islands; designed to inspire and engage all involved. Locally inspired cultural experiences, arts and crafts as well as camping expeditions invite young minds to explore, discover and embrace their surroundings.

Recycled art, mini botanists, family yoga and cultural curiosity keep kids engaged during their island escape at Intercontinental Maldives Maamunagau. Budding marine biologists and nature enthusiasts are encouraged to participate in purposeful play at Planet Trekkers, with the option of pirate ships and splash pools for unlimited fun!

FOR THE TEENS: KEEP COOL WHILE HAVING FUN!

Niyama Private Islands games room, ACTIVE, lures teenagers with a table for ping-pong, darts, foosball, and a TV with Xbox and PlayStation gaming consoles. Two high-tech rooms with giant screens offer golf, hockey and basketball simulators.

OneTribe for teens at One&Only Reethi Rah, Maldives offers hours of indoor and outdoor entertainment, including sailing lessons, mini discos, wellness activities and a sandbank survival trip to maximise the island experience for ages 13 - 17 years.

Furaavaru Club at Conrad Maldives Rangali Island features air hockey tables and bean bags, Playstations, a karaoke machine and an outside area for tie-dyeing t-shirts. Beyond the cool clubhouse, young travellers may join youth sessions and diving lessons run by the resident marine biologist.
